(2) Where the accused makes such an application, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address

(3) Where the Court is of the opinion that the interests of justice so require it shall allow the application and try separately the accused who made it.

76. Application for trial on separate charge-sheet.—(1) Where a charge-sheet contains more than one charge, the accused may, before pleading to the charges, apply to the Court to be tried separately on any charge in that charge-sheet on the ground that he would be prejudiced in his defence if he were not tried separately on that charge.

(2) Where the accused makes such an application, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(3) Where the Court is of the opinion that interests of justice so require it shall allow the application and try the accused separately on the charge to which it relates as if that charge had been inserted in a separate charge-sheet.

77. Pleading to the charge.—(1) After any plea under rules 72 and 74 any objection under rule 73 and any applications under rules 75 and 76 have been dealt with, the accused shall be required subject to sub-rule (2) to plead either guilty or not guilty to each charge on which he is arraigned.

(2) Where a Court is empowered by section 93 to find an accused guilty of an offence other than that charged or guilty of committing the offence in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment or where it could after hearing the evidence, make a special finding of guilty subject to exceptions or variations in accordance with rule 99 the accused may plead guilty to such other offence or to the offence charged as having been committed in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment or to the offence charged subject to such exceptions or variations.

78. Acceptance of plea of guilty.—(1) Where an accused pleads guilty to a charge under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77, the presiding officer or Law Officer shall, before the Court decides to accept the plea, explain to the accused the nature of the charge and the general effect of his plea and in particular the difference in procedure when an accused pleads guilty and when an accused pleads not guilty.

(2) A Court shall not accept a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77, if,—

- (a) the Court is not satisfied that the accused understands the nature of the charge or the effect of his plea; or
- (b) the presiding officer having regard to all the circumstances, considers that the accused should plead not guilty; or
- (c) the accused is liable, if convicted, to be sentenced to death;

(3) (a) In the case of a plea of guilty under rule 79, a Court shall not accept the plea unless the convening officer concurs and it is satisfied of the justice of such course.

(b) The concurrence of the convening officer may be signified by the prosecutor.

(4) When a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77 is not accepted by the Court or the accused either refuses to plead to the charge or does not plead to it intelligibly, the Court shall record a plea of not guilty.

(5) When a Court is satisfied that it can properly accept a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77, it shall record a finding of guilty in respect thereof.

79. Plea on alternative charge.—(1) When an accused pleads guilty to the first of two or more alternative charges, the Court, if it accepts the accused's plea of guilty, shall record a finding of guilty in respect of the first charge and the prosecutor shall withdraw any alternative charge before the accused is arraigned on it.

- (a) proceed as if the accused had pleaded not guilty to all the charges; or
- (b) (i) With concurrence of the convening officer (which may be signified by the prosecutor) record a finding of guilty on the charge to which the accused has pleaded guilty and a finding of not guilty on any alternative charge which is placed before it in the charge-sheet.

- (ii) Where the Court records such finding the prosecutor shall before the accused is arraigned on it withdraw any charge which is alternative to the charge of which the Court has found the accused guilty and which is placed after it in the charge-sheet.

80. Order of trial where plea of guilty and not guilty.—(1) After the Court has recorded a finding of guilty, if there is no other charge in the same charge sheet to which the accused has pleaded not guilty and no other accused who has pleaded not guilty to a charge in that charge-sheet, it shall proceed with the trial as directed by rule 81.

(2) Where there is another charge in the charge-sheet to which the accused has pleaded not guilty or there is another accused who has pleaded not guilty to a charge in that charge-sheet, the Court shall not comply with rule 81 until after it has dealt with such other charge or tried such other accused and has announced and recorded its finding in respect thereof.

81. Procedure on plea of guilty.—(1) When the Court has recorded a finding of guilty in respect of a charge to which an accused had pleaded guilty the prosecutor shall read the record or abstract of evidence to the Court or inform the Court of the facts contained therein:

Provided that if an expurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence was sent to the presiding officer, the prosecutor shall not read to the Court those parts of the record or abstract of evidence which have been expurgated or inform the Court of the facts contained in those parts, and shall not hand the original record or abstract of evidence to the Court until the trial is concluded.

(2) Where there is no record or abstract of evidence the Court shall record in accordance with these rules sufficient evidence to enable it to determine the sentence.

(3) After sub-rules (1) and (2) have been complied with, the accused may,—

(a) adduce evidence of character and in mitigation of punishment;

(b) address the Court in mitigation of punishment.

(c) After sub-rule (3) has been complied with, the Court shall proceed as directed in rule 101.

82. Change or plea.—(1) An accused who has pleaded not guilty may at any time before the Court closes to deliberate on its finding withdraw his plea of not guilty and substitute a plea of guilty [including a plea of guilty under the (79)] and in such a case the Court shall, if it is satisfied that it can accept the accused's changed plea under these rules, record a finding in accordance with the accused's changed plea and so far as is necessary proceed as directed by rule 81.

(2) Where at any time during the trial it appears to the Court that an accused who has pleaded guilty does not understand the effect of his plea or the nature of the charge the Court shall enter a plea of not guilty and proceed with the trial accordingly.

(3) When the Court records a plea of not guilty in respect of any charge under sub-rule (2) it shall, if there was a charge laid in the alternative thereto which the prosecutor withdrew under rule 79 reinstate such alternative charge, arraign the accused thereon and proceed with the trial as if it had never been withdrawn.

83. Procedure on pleas of not guilty—After a plea of not guilty to any charge has been recorded:—

(i) the Court shall ask the accused whether he wishes to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of these rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with and that he has been prejudiced thereby or on the ground that he has not had sufficient opportunity for preparing his defence;

(ii) Where the accused applies for an adjournment;

(a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of his application and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer thereto; and

(b) the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the application and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(iii) the Court may grant an adjournment if it thinks the interests of justice so require.

84. Opening address.—(1) The prosecutor may, if he so desires, and shall, if required by the Court, make an opening address explaining the charge and the nature and general effect of the evidence which he proposes to adduce.

(2) The witnesses for the prosecution shall then be called and give their evidence.

85. Additional witness.—Where the prosecutor intends to adduce evidence which is not contained in any record or abstract of evidence given to the accused notice of such intention together with the particulars of the evidence shall, when practicable, be given to the accused a reasonable time before the evidence is adduced. If such evidence is adduced without such notice or particulars having been given, the Court may, if the accused so desires either adjourn after receiving the evidence or allow any cross-examination arising out of that evidence to be postponed, and the Court shall inform the accused of his right to apply for such an adjournment or postponement.

86. Dropping witnesses.—The prosecutor shall not be bound to call all the witnesses against the accused whose evidence is contained in the record or abstract of evidence, nor a witness when he has notified the accused that he intends to call under rule 85, but if the prosecutor does not intend to call such witness to give evidence, he shall either tender him for cross-examination by the accused, or give the accused reasonable notice that he does not intend to call the witness and that the accused will be allowed to communicate with him and to call him as a witness for the defence, if he so desires and if the witness is available.

87. Withdrawal of witnesses.—During a trial a witness other than the prosecutor or accused shall not, except by leave of the Court, be in Court while not under examination, and if while he is under examination a discussion arises as to whether a question is to be allowed or not with regard to his evidence the Court may direct the witness to withdraw during such discussion.

88. Examination of witnesses.—(1) A witness may be examined by the person calling him and may be cross-examined by the opposite party to the proceedings and on the conclusion of any such cross-examination may be re-examined by the person who called him on matters arising out of the cross-examination.

(2)(a) The person examining a witness shall put his questions to the witness orally and unless an objection is made by the witness, the Court, the Law Officer, the prosecutor or by the accused, the witness shall reply forthwith.

(b) Where such an objection is made, the witness shall not reply until the objection has been disposed of.

(3) The Court may allow the cross-examination or re-examination of a witness to be postponed.

(4) Before the examination of a witness, he shall be administered an oath or affirmation in the following form or in such other form to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be in accordance with his religion or otherwise binding on his conscience.

FORM OF OATH

I.....swear by Almighty God that whatever I shall state, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

I.....do solemnly, truly and sincerely declare and affirm that whatever I shall state, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

89. Questioning by the court.—(1) The presiding officer, the Law Officer and any member of the Court may put questions to a witness.

(2) Upon any such question being answered, the prosecutor and the accused may put to the witness such questions arising from the answer which he has given as seem proper to the Court.

90. Reading over of evidence.—(1)(a) The record which has been made of the evidence given by a witness shall be read back to him before he leaves the Court and when this is done he may ask for the record to be corrected or explain the evidence which he has given.

(b) Where any such correction is made or explanation given, the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness respecting the correction or explanation as seem proper to the Court.

(2) When a shorthand writer is employed it shall not be necessary to comply with sub-rule (1), if, in the opinion of the Court and the Law Officer (if any) it is unnecessary to do so:

Provided that if any witness so demands, sub-rule (1) shall be complied with.

91. Calling or recalling witnesses by the Court.—(1)(a) The Court may at any time before it closes to deliberate on its finding or if there is a Law Officer before he begins to sum up, call a witness or recall a witness, if in the opinion of the Court it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(b) Where the Court calls a witness or recalls a witness under this rule, the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness as seem proper to the Court.

(2) The prosecutor and the accused may, at any time before the Court closes to deliberate on its finding or if there is a Law Officer before he begins to sum up, recall a witness by leave of the Court and the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness as seem proper to the Court.

92. Submission of no case to answer and stopping of cases.—(1)(a) At the close of the case for the prosecution the accused may submit to the Court in respect of any charge that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case for him to answer and that he should not be called upon to make his defence to that charge.

(b) Where the accused makes such submission the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) The Court shall not allow the submission unless it is satisfied that—

(a) the prosecution has not established—a prima facie case on the charge as laid; and

(b) it is not open to it on the evidence to make a special finding under either section 93 or sub-rule (4) of rule 99.

(3)(a) Where the Court allows the submission, it, shall find the accused not guilty of the charge to which it relates and subject to confirmation the finding shall forthwith be announced in open Court.

(b) Where the Court disallows the submission it shall proceed with the trial of the offence as charged.

(4) The Court may, of its own motion, after the close of the hearing of the case for the prosecution, and after hearing the prosecutor find the accused not guilty of the charge and subject to confirmation the finding shall forthwith be announced in open Court.

93. Case for the defence.—(1) After the close of the case for the prosecution, the presiding officer or the Law Officer (if any) shall explain to the accused that,—

(a) if he wishes, he may give evidence on oath as a witness or make a statement without being sworn but that he is not obliged to do either.

(b) if he gives evidence on oath, he shall be liable to be cross examined by the prosecutor and to be questioned by the Court.

(2) For the purpose of enabling the accused to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him, the Court may, at any stage of the trial, without previously warning the accused, put such questions to him as the Court considers necessary, and shall for the purpose aforesaid, question him generally on the case after the witnesses for the prosecution have been examined and before he is called on for his defence.

(3) The accused shall not render himself liable to punishment by refusing to answer such questions, or by giving false answers to them but the Court may draw such inference from such refusal or answers as it thinks just.

(4) The answers given by the accused may be taken into consideration in such trial and put in evidence for or against him in any other inquiry into, or trial for, any other offence which such answers may tend to show he has committed.

(5) If the accused intends to call a witness to the facts of the case other than himself, he may make an opening address outlining the case for the defence before the evidence for the defence is given.

94. Witnesses for defence.—(1) After rule 93 has been complied with, the witnesses for the defence (if any) shall be called to give their evidence.

(2) The provisions of rules 88, 89 and 90 shall apply to the witnesses for the defence as they apply to the evidence of witnesses for the prosecution.

95. Witnesses in reply.—After the witnesses for the defence have given their evidence the prosecutor may by leave of the Court call a witness or recall a witness to give evidence on any matter raised by the accused in his defence which the prosecution could not properly have mentioned to the Court before the accused disclosed his defence or which the prosecution could not reasonably have foreseen.

96. Closing addresses.—(1) After all the evidence has been given the prosecutor and the accused may each make a closing address to the Court.

(2) The accused shall be entitled to make his closing address after the closing address by the prosecutor unless the accused has called a witness to facts other than himself, in which case the prosecutor shall be entitled, subject to sub-rules (3) and (4) to make his closing address after the accused has made the closing address.

(3) Where two or more accused are tried jointly, any one of them who has called no such witness shall be entitled to make his closing address after the prosecutor has made the closing address.

(4) (a) Where two or more accused are represented by the same defending officer or counsel he may make one closing address only.

(b) Where any one of the accused for whom he appears has called no witness to facts other than himself such defending officer or counsel shall be entitled to make his closing address after the prosecutor has made the closing address.

97. Summing up by Law Officer.—After the closing addresses, if there is a Law Officer he shall sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law relating to the case in open court.

98. Deliberation on finding.—(1) The Court shall deliberate on its finding in closed Court in the presence of the Law Officer.

(2) The opinion of each member of the Court as to the finding shall be given by word of mouth on each charge separately starting with the junior most in rank.

99. Record and Announcement of Finding.—(1) The finding on every charge upon which the accused is arraigned shall be recorded and except as provided in these rules, shall be recorded simply as a finding of "Guilty" or of "Not Guilty".

(2) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts proved do not disclose the offence charged or any offence of which he might under the Act legally be found guilty on the charge as laid, the Court shall acquit the accused of that charge.

(3) If the Court has doubts as regards any charge whether the facts proved show the accused to be guilty on the charge as laid, it may, before recording a finding on that charge, refer to the confirming authority for an opinion, setting out the facts which it finds to be proved and may if necessary, adjourn for that purpose.

(4) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts which it finds to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, it may, instead of a finding of "Not Guilty" record a special finding.

(5) The special finding may find the accused guilty on a charge subject to the statement of exceptions or variations specified therein.

(6) Where there are alternative charges, and the facts proved appear to the Court not to constitute the offence mentioned in any of those alternative charges, the Court shall record a finding of "Not Guilty" on that charge.

(7) The Court shall not find the accused guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative, even if conviction upon one charge necessarily connotes guilty upon the alternative charge or charges.

(8) If the Court thinks that the facts proved constitute one of the offences stated in two or more of the alternative charges, but doubts which of those offences the facts do at law constitute, it may, before recording a finding on those charges, refer to the confirming authority for an opinion, setting out the facts which it finds to be proved and stating that it doubts whether those facts constitute in law the offence stated in such one or other of the charges and may, if necessary, adjourn for that purpose.

(9) The finding on each charge shall be announced forthwith in open Court as subject to confirmation.

100. Procedure on Acquittal.—If the finding on all the charges is "Not Guilty" the presiding officer shall affix his signature and date on the finding and such signature shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings, and the proceedings upon being signed by the Law Officer (if any) shall be at once transmitted for confirmation.

101. Procedure on Conviction.—(1) If the finding on any charge is "Guilty", then, for the guidance of the Court in determining its sentence, and of the confirming authority in considering the sentence, the Court, before deliberating on the sentence, shall, whenever possible, take evidence of and record the general character, age, service, rank, any recognised acts of gallantry or distinguished conduct of the accused, any previous convictions of the accused either by Security Force Court or a criminal court, any previous punishments awarded to him by an officer exercising authority under section 53 or 55 as the case may be; the length of time he has been in arrest or in confinement on any previous sentence, and any decoration, or reward, of which he may be in possession or to which he is entitled.

(2) Evidence on the above matters may be given by a witness verifying a statement which contains a summary of the entries in the service books respecting the accused and identifying the accused as the person referred to in that summary.

(3) The accused may cross-examine any such witness and may call witnesses to rebut such evidence; and if the accused so requests, the service books or a duly certified copy of the material entries therein, shall be produced and if the accused alleges that the summary is in respect not in accordance with the service books or such certified copy, as the case may be, the Court shall compare the summary with those books or copy and if it finds that it is not in accordance therewith, shall cause summary to be corrected or the objection of the accused to be recorded.

(4) When all the evidence on the above matters has been given, the accused may address the Court thereon and in mitigation of punishment.

102. Sentence.—The Court shall award a single sentence in respect of all the offences of which the accused is found guilty, and such sentence shall be deemed to be awarded in respect of which it can be legally given and not to be awarded in respect of which it cannot be legally given.

103. Recommendation for mercy.—(1) Where the Court makes a recommendation to mercy it shall give its reasons for its recommendation.

(2) The number of opinions by which the recommendation to mercy mentioned in this rule, or any question relative thereto, is adopted or rejected, may be entered in the proceedings.

104. Announcement of Sentence and Signing and Transmission of Proceedings.—(1) The sentence together with any recommendation to mercy and the reasons for any such recommendation shall be announced forthwith in open Court. The sentence will be announced as subject to confirmation.

(2) Upon the Court awarding the sentence, the presiding officer shall affix his signature and date the sentence and such signatures shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings and the proceedings upon being signed by the Law Officer (if any), shall at once be transmitted for confirmation.

105. Revision.—(1)(a) Where the finding is sent back for revision under section 113, the Court shall re-assemble in open Court, the revision order shall be read and if the Court, is directed to take fresh evidence such evidence shall be taken in open Court.

(b) Where such fresh evidence is recorded otherwise than at the instance of the accused, the accused shall be given a further opportunity to lead evidence in respect of matters brought out in such fresh evidence.

(c) The prosecutor and the accused shall be given a further opportunity to address the Court in respect of the fresh evidence led.

(d) The Law Officer may also give a further summing up.

(2) Where the revision of finding does not involve taking of fresh evidence, the accused shall be given an opportunity to address the Court in respect of matter raised in the revision order.

(3)(a) The Court shall then deliberate on its finding in closed Court and if the Court does not adhere to its former finding, it shall revoke the finding and sentence and record a new finding and if such new finding involves a sentence pass sentence afresh.

(b) Where the original finding was one of "Not Guilty", the Court shall, before passing sentence comply with rules 101 and 102.

(4)(a) Where the sentence alone is sent back for revision, the revision order shall be read in open Court and the accused given an opportunity to address the Court in regard to matters referred to in the revision order.

(b) The Court shall then reconsider its sentence in closed Court and if it does not adhere to the sentence, revoke the sentence and pass sentence afresh.

(5) Where the sentence alone is sent for revision the Court shall not revise the finding.

106. Confirmation and Promulgation.—(1) When a confirming authority receives the record of the proceedings of a Court, it shall record its decision thereon and on any sentence and any order which the Court may have made under section 105 on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate form set out in Appendix VIII and such record of his decision shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) When a Court has accepted a plea of guilty made under rule 79 the confirming authority may confirm its finding notwithstanding that the Court has accepted the plea without the concurrence of the convening officer, if, in the opinion of the confirming authority it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3)(a) When a Court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction of the Court or a plea in bar of trial or has over-ruled an objection to a charge, it shall not be necessary for the confirming authority to approve specifically the decision of the Court, but its approval shall be implied from its confirming the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(b) Where it disapproves the decision of the Court to reject the plea or to over-rule the objection it shall withhold confirmation of the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(4) A confirming authority may state its reasons for withholding confirmation in any case, but if it withholds confirmation where a Court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction or plea in bar of trial or has over-ruled an objection to the charges because it disapproves this decision of the Court, it shall when recording its decision under sub-rule (1) state that it has withheld confirmation for this reason.

(5) Where the sentence of a Court is improperly expressed, the confirming authority may in confirming the sentence vary the form thereof so that it shall be properly expressed.

(6) Whenever it appears that there is sufficient evidence on a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 79 to justify the finding of the Court, such finding and any lawful sentence consequent thereon may be confirmed, and if confirmed shall be valid, notwithstanding any deviation from these rules, if the accused has not been prejudiced by such deviation.

(7) While confirming the finding the confirming authority may either unconditionally or subject to conditions which the accused accepts, reduce or remit a portion of the sentence or commute the punishment to one given lower in the scale of punishments in section 48.

(8) (a) When a confirming authority has confirmed a finding and a sentence of a Court or has withheld confirmation thereof, it shall send the record of the proceedings to the Commandant of the accused for promulgation to the accused of the finding and sentence or the fact that confirmation has been withheld as the case may be.

(b) The fact of promulgation shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the form set out in Appendix IX.

(c) Where confirmation has been withheld because the confirming authority disapproves the Court's decision to reject a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or to over-rule an objection to the charge, the accused shall be so informed.

CHAPTER X

Procedure of Security Force Courts and Incidental Matters.

107. Seating of members.—The members of a Court shall take their seats according to their rank.

108. Responsibility of Presiding Officer.—(1) The presiding officer is responsible for the trial being conducted in proper order, and in accordance with the Act, rules made thereunder and in a manner befitting a court of justice.

(2) It is the duty of the presiding officer to see that the accused has a fair trial, and that he does not suffer any disadvantage in consequence of his position as a person under trial, or of his ignorance, or of his incapacity to examine or cross-examine witnesses, or otherwise.

109. Power of Court over address of prosecutor and accused.—(1) It is the duty of the prosecutor to assist the Court in the administration of justice, to behave impartially, to bring the whole of the transaction before the Court and not to take any unfair advantage of, or suppress any evidence in favour of the accused.

(2) The prosecutor may not refer to any matter, not relevant to the charge or charges, then before the Court, and it is the duty of the Court to stop him from so doing and also to restrain any undue violence of language or want of fairness or moderation on the part of the prosecutor.

(3) The Court shall give reasonable facilities to the accused, in making his defence; the accused must abstain from any remarks contemptuous or disrespectful towards the Court, and from coarse and insulting language towards others, but he may for the purpose of his defence impeach the evidence and charge other persons with blame and even criminality, subject, if he does so, to any liability which he may thereby incur. The Court may caution the accused as to the irrelevance of his defence, but shall not, unless in special cases stop his defence solely on ground of such irrelevance.

110. Sitting in closed Court.—(1) A Court shall, where it is so directed by these rules, and may in any other case on any deliberation amongst the members, sit in closed Court.

(2) No person shall be present in closed Court except the members of the Court, the Law Officer (if any) and any officers under instruction.

(3) For the purpose of giving effect to the foregoing provisions of this rule, a Court may either retire or cause the place where it sits to be cleared of all other persons not entitled to be present.

(4) Except as hereinbefore mentioned all proceedings, including the view of any place, shall be in open Court and in the presence of the accused subject to sub-rule (5).

(5) The Court shall have the power to exclude from the Court any witness who has yet to give evidence or any other person, other than the accused, who interferes with its proceedings.

111. Continuity of trial and adjournment of Court.—(1) When a Court is once assembled and the accused has been arraigned, the Court shall continue the trial from day to day in accordance with these rules unless it appears to the Court that an adjournment is necessary for the ends of justice or that such continuance is impracticable.

(2) (a) A Court may from time to time adjourn its proceedings and meet at such place as may be convenient, and

(b) wherever necessary, visit the scene of occurrence.

(3) The senior officer on the spot may also for exigencies of service adjourn or prolong the adjournment of the Court.

(4) A Court in the absence of a Law Officer (if one has been appointed for that Court) shall not proceed, and shall adjourn.

(5) If the time to which an adjournment is made is not specified, the adjournment shall be until further orders from the proper Force authority; and, if the place to which an adjournment is made is not specified, the adjournment shall be to the same place or to such other place as may be specified in further orders from the proper Force authority.

112. Suspension of Trial.—(1) Where, in consequence of anything arising while the Court is sitting, the Court is unable by reason of dissolution as specified in section 71 or otherwise, to continue the trial, the presiding officer or, in his absence the senior member present, shall immediately report the facts to the convening authority.

113. Proceedings on death or illness of accused.—In case of the death of the accused or of such illness of the accused as renders it impossible to continue the trial, the Court shall ascertain the fact of the death or illness by evidence and record the same and adjourn and transmit the proceedings to the convening authority.

114. Death, retirement or absence of Presiding Officer.—In the case of the death, retirement on challenge or unavoidable absence of the presiding officer, the next senior officer shall take the place of the presiding officer and the trial shall proceed if the Court is still composed of not less than the minimum number of officers of which it is required by law to consist.

115. Presence throughout of all members of Court.—(1) A member of a Court who has been absent while any part of the evidence on the trial of an accused person is taken, shall take no further part in the trial by that Court of that person, but the Court will not be affected unless it is reduced below the legal minimum.

(2) An officer shall not be added to a Court after the accused has been arraigned.

116. Taking of opinions of members of Court.—(1) Every member of a Court must give his opinion by word of mouth on every question which the Court has to decide, and must give his opinion as to the sentence notwithstanding that he has given his opinion in favour of acquittal.

(2) The opinions of the members of the Court shall be taken in succession, beginning with the member lowest in rank.

117. Procedure on Incidental Questions.—If any objection is raised on any matter of Law, evidence, or procedure, by the prosecutor or by or on behalf of the accused during the trial, the prosecutor or the accused or counsel or the defending officer (as the case may be) shall have a right to answer the same and the person raising the objection shall have a right to reply.

118. Evidence when to be translated.—When any evidence is given in a language which any of the officers composing the Court, the accused or the Law Officer does not understand, it shall be translated into a language which he understands.

119. Record in Proceedings of Transactions of a Security Force Court.—(1) At a Court the Law Officer or, if there is none, the presiding officer shall record or cause to be recorded all transactions of the Court, and shall be responsible for the accuracy of the record (in these rules referred to as the proceedings); and if the Law Officer is called as a witness by the accused, the presiding officer shall be responsible for the accuracy of the record in the proceedings of the evidence of the Law Officer.

(2) The evidence shall be taken down in a narrative form in as nearly as possible the words used, but in any case where the prosecutor, the accused, the Law Officer, or the Court considers it material, the question and answer shall be taken down verbatim.

(3) Where an objection has been taken to any question or to the admission of any evidence or to the procedure of the Court, such objection shall if the prosecutor or accused so requests or the Court thinks fit, be entered upon the proceedings together with the grounds of the objection and the decision of the Court thereon.

(4) Where any address by, or on behalf of the prosecutor or the accused, is not in writing, it shall not be necessary to record the same in the proceedings further or otherwise than the Court thinks proper, except that,

- (a) the Court shall in every case make such record of the defence, made by the accused as will enable the confirming officer to judge of the reply made by, or on behalf of, the accused to each charge against him, and
- (b) the Court shall also record any particular matters in the address by or on behalf of, the prosecutor or the accused which the prosecutor or the accused, as the case may be, may require.

(3) Where several accused persons are tried separately upon charges arising out of the same transaction, the Court may, if it considers it to be desirable in the interests of justice, postpone consideration of any sentence to be awarded to any one or more such accused persons until the trials of all such accused persons have been completed.

138. Arrangement of accused.—(1) After the Court and interpreter (if any) are sworn or affirmed as above mentioned, the accused shall be arraigned on the charges against him.

Procedure after plea of "Guilty".—(1) Upon the record of the plea of "Guilty", if there are other charges in the same charge-sheet to which the plea is "Not Guilty", the trial shall first proceed with respect to those other charges, and, after the finding on those charges, shall proceed with the charges on which a plea of "Guilty" has been entered; but if there are alternative charges, the Court may either proceed with respect to all the charges as if the accused had not pleaded "Guilty" to any charge, or may, instead of trying him, record a finding of "Guilty" upon any one of the alternative charges to which he had pleaded "Guilty" and finding of "Not Guilty" upon all the other alternative charges which precede such charge.

(2) (a) After the record of the plea of "Guilty" on a charge (if the trial does not proceed on any other charges) the Court shall read the record or abstract of evidence and annex it to the proceedings, or if there is no such record, or abstract shall take and record sufficient evidence to enable it to determine the sentence, and the reviewing officer to know all the circumstances connected with the offence.

Withdrawal of plea of "Not Guilty".—The accused may, if he thinks fit at any time during the trial, withdraw his plea of "Not Guilty" and plead "Guilty" and in such case the Court shall at once, subject to compliance with sub-rule (2) of rule 142 record a plea and finding of "Guilty" and shall, so far as if necessary, proceed in manner directed by rule 143.

(3) When the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts found to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge, but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, it may, instead of a finding of "Not Guilty" record a special finding.

(4) The special finding may find the accused guilty on a charge subject to the statement of exceptions or variations specified therein.

(5) The Court shall not find the accused guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative, even if conviction upon one charge necessarily connotes guilt upon the alternative charge or charges.

150. Procedure on Acquittal.—Where the finding on each of the charges in a charge-sheet is "Not Guilty", the Court shall affix its signature and date the proceedings, the findings will be announced in open Court, and the accused will be released if under arrest, in respect of these charges.
